relax with the tikis

Hungry for crispy duck with moo shu pancakes, scallions, cucumbers and hoi sin sauce? Then Trader Vic's, a Polynesian classic, is your kind of place. This restaurant recreates the flavor of Scottsdale's original Trader Vic's, a landmark from the same era as the hotel itself. Reborn, Trader Vic's at Hotel Valley Ho celebrates Asia and the islands with dining indoors and on the lushly landscaped patio.

gather the islanders

For a downtown Scottsdale meeting, Trader Vic's is an ideal setting. Hold a private breakfast, lunch or dinner for up to 200 guests, or a smaller party for up to 40, with special menus available for your group. Take advantage of these fabulous reception areas, not to mention a great location with free parking.

luau room

This semi-private dining area overlooks the main dining room and can accommodate parties of up to 40 guests.

bamboo patio

Parties with 40 guests or fewer will enjoy this semi-private patio that features tikis, torches for a truly tropic oasis experience.

captain's corner & tiki patio

For a reception on the Tiki Patio followed by dinner inside the restaurant, the Captain's Corner is the perfect spot. Best for 30 or fewer guests.

colonel's cove & outrigger patio

This semi-private dining area accommodates up to 50 guests and features floor-to-ceiling glass with views of the adjoining patio.

buy out

The entire restaurant is available for events with up to 200 guests. Whether for breakfast, lunch or dinner, Trader Vic's adds tropical flair to your special occasion.
